Title: Approval of fresh policy guidelines for allotment of House sites / Flats to members Housing Societies viz., State Government Employees and Other Employees / judicial officials in the State.

Decision: Approved the proposal with the following modification:-

1) Amaravati Capital City Housing Policy. The housing policy for Amaravati capital city will be separate from the rest of the state. The following modifications are made in the proposal.
   a. The aim of housing policy in Amaravati greenfield capital city is to encourage settlement of first settlers (judiciary functionaries/employees, government functionaries/employees, legislature employees, press, etc.) in the new city for rapid city development and its smooth functioning. Many new institutions are being allotted lands in Amaravati on concessional terms for kick starting the new city as it is a new area. There is a need to create a social environment by providing housing and incentivising housing investment into creation of housing stock by the first settlers of Amaravati city.
   b. The time for completion of house construction by the allottees will be 3 years from the date of land allotment.
   c. All employees who are allotted or recruited to new state of Andhra Pradesh, and working in the state as on date will only be eligible.
   d. All AIS officers who are allotted or born on the new Andhra Pradesh Cadre and working in the state as on date will only be eligible.
   e. All AIS officers belonging to other states/ central civil service officers/ secretary law who are working in the state as on date will also be eligible.
   f. All employees and AIS officers who as part of another housing society are allotted a house site on concessional terms in the new state of Andhra Pradesh are not eligible.
   g. All employees and AIS officers who do not have a house site in the name of self/ spouse/ dependent children in Amaravati Capital City will only be eligible.
   h. Plots/flats will be provided to state government employees working in the state capital unit of Heads of Departments/ Secretariat / State Public Sector Undertakings located in the state capital/state level institutions.
i. APCRDA Authority will fix the market rate of land as recommended by the Group of Ministers and allot lands without again referring the matter to Government.

j. The Government Orders regarding functionaries and employees of High Court will be issued with the consent of High Court.

2) Rest of the state housing policy. The aim of housing policy in the rest of the state is to facilitate own housing for the category of government employees working in the districts. The following modifications are made in the proposal.

a. House sites will be allotted if Government land is available.

b. If Government land is not available and private land has to be acquired, land will be provided for construction of multi-storey flats.

c. The land will be provided at nominal rate as approved by Government with recommendation of AP Land Management Authority.

d. Each employee cannot take more than one flat/house site as member of more than one housing society in the state.

e. All employees who do not have a house site in the name of self/spouse/dependent children within the urban area/town of allotment will only be eligible.

3) The GOs will be issued separately for Amaravati Capital City housing policy and Rest of the State housing policy.

Creation of the post of R.J.D.S.E., Visakhapatnam

The key administrative officer at Regional level in School Education Department is the Regional Joint Director of School Education and he has diversified responsibilities including administrative, supervisory and academic functions under his jurisdiction.

2. There are four zones with 13 districts and three RJDSEs are there for four Zones in the State of A.P., as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Zone</th>
<th>Districts</th>
<th>RJDSE,</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>a)</td>
<td>Zone-1: Srikakulam, Vizianagaram and Visakhapatnam</td>
<td>Kakinada.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c)</td>
<td>Zone-3: Guntur, Prakasam and Nellore</td>
<td>Guntur.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>d)</td>
<td>Zone-4: Kadapa, Anantapur, Kurnool and Chittoor</td>
<td>Kadapa.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

3. D Dissimilar to other RJDSEs, the RJDSE, Kakinada has to look after vast geographical area of six districts of Zone-I & Zone-II and it is causing inconvenience for smooth and effective administration in his jurisdiction and hindering to discharge the duties in the Zone. Therefore, it is essential for creation of the post of RJDSE, Visakhapatnam, for Zone-I districts so as to have one RJDSE for each Zone, for administrative convenience and effective supervision to achieve good results. Further in view of backwardness of Uttarandhra Districts, welfare of the students and people of Uttarandhra, there is a need for creation of post of RJDSE, Visakhapatnam for Zone-I districts.

4. After examining all the aspects, the Cabinet has resolved for creation of the post of RJDSE, Visakhapatnam, for Zone-I districts.
