The above said case was placed before the Advisory Board for its consideration and to submit its report to Government, under Section 11 (1) of the said Act, vide reference 3rd read above. The case was reviewed by the Advisory Board on 10.03.2018. After having heard the detenue and the Investigating Officers and also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, has reported that in its opinion, “there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenue, Sri Devendla @ Devandla Lokesh, S/o Sankaraiah, Aged 32 years, Podalakur Road, Nellore Town and District.”

AND WHEREAS, the Government on careful examination of the entire record, it is observed that the detenue, Sri Devendla @ Devandla Lokesh, S/o Sankaraiah, Aged 32 years, Podalakur Road, Nellore Town and District, was involved in as many as in Eleven (11) cases. The above cases were registered against him, under the provisions of Section 20(1) C(i) (ii) (iii) (iv)(vi) & (x), 20(d)(i)(a)(b), (ii) (a) (b) & 29 (2) (b), (4) (a) (i)(ii) (b) & 68 of A.P. Forest Act, 1967 and Amendment Act No.15 of 2016; under section 51 of Wild Life Protection Act, 1972; Rule 3 of A.P. Sandal Wood and Red Sanders Wood Transits Rules, 1969; Sec.3 of PDPP Act, 1984 and Sec. 147,148,307,353,379, (Theft of National Property), 120 (B) r/w 109 r/w 149 IPC, & Sec.3 of PDPP Act, 1984. The details shows that he is a habitual offender and a master mind behind the said offences. He has been organizing the illicit felling of red sanders theft and its transport smuggling to secret and unknown places in India apart from smuggling of Red sanders wood to other states from the reserve forest areas owned by the Government and supplying to other smugglers. He has been illegally smuggling red sanders wood duly cutting them from the pristine red sanders forests to the other parts of the country in the highly organized manner in connivances with other kingpin smugglers and also hand-in-glove with other notorious smugglers of contraband red sanders wood, who are smuggling the same across the international borders. The said activities are dangerous to forest wealth and prejudicial to maintenance of public order apart from disturbing the peace, tranquillity, social harmony / order in the society and he became a source of potential danger to the public. The said offences are punishable under Forest Act, 1967 and the rules made there under, as well as Chapter XVI or XVII or XXII of IPC. As such the activities of the individual falls under and within the meaning of ‘Goonda’ as defined under Section 2(g) of Act 1 of 1986. All the incidents mentioned in the grounds of detention clearly substantiate as to how the acts of the detenue are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. In catena of decisions, the Hon’ble Courts held that any acts of attempt or illegal cutting of the red sander trees and smuggling the timber, would certainly have its impact on the public order. The detaining authority having taken into account and consideration of indulgence of the detenue in the above said activities repeatedly at regular intervals and having satisfied that the penal laws have failed to curb his illegal activities, has passed the detention order against the detenue by invoking the provisions under the Act 1 of 1986, in order to prevent him from indulging further in such activities, which are prejudicial to maintenance of public order and dangerous to forest wealth. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the Detenue. As such, the detenue deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under Section 13 of the Act;

5. Now, therefore, after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, Government, in exercise of the powers conferred under Sub-Section (1) of Section 12 read with Section 13 of the said Act, hereby confirm the Order of Detention made by the Collector and District Magistrate, Y.S.R. District, Kadapa in the ref. 1st read above, as approved in the G.O. 2nd read (Contd.....3) above and direct that the detention of Sri Devendla @ Devandla Lokesh, S/o Sankaraiah, Aged 32 years, Podalakur Road, Nellore Town and District, be continued for a period of 12 (Twelve) months from the date of his detention, i.e. 29.01.2018.
