Reddy (Retired), Chairman and two other Members and the Advisory Board shall submit its report to Govt., within seven weeks from the date of detention under Section 11(1) of the said Act. The above said case was placed before the Advisory Board for its consideration and to submit its (PTC) report to Government, under Section 11 (1) of the said Act, vide reference 3rd read above. The case was reviewed by the Advisory Board on 14.09.2018. After having heard the detainee, who has been produced before them and perused the representation of the detainee, and the investigating Officers and also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, the Advisory Board, while rejecting the request of the detainee to engage an Advocate, has unanimously reported that in its opinion, “there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detainee, “Sri Syed Nazeer @ Chemcha Nazeer @ Nazeer, Aged 46 years, S/o Syed Ismail, R/o Katiganahalli, Jadigeneppalli Post, Hoskote Taluk, Bangalore Rural District, Karnataka State”;

4. AND WHEREAS, the Government on careful examination of the entire record and opinion of the Advisory Board in this regard, has observed that the detainee, Sri Syed Nazeer @ Chemcha Nazeer @ Nazeer, Aged 46 years, S/o Syed Ismail, R/o Katiganahalli, Jadigeneppalli Post, Hoskote Taluk, Bangalore Rural District, Karnataka State, was involved in as many as in 07 (Seven) cases. The above cases were registered against him, under the provisions of Section 379, 147, 148,353, 447, 427, 411, 414, 403, 307 r/w 149 IPC & Sec. 109 IPC,120(B) IPC r/w 34 IPC, and Sec.20(1)(d)(i) of A.P. Forest (Amendment) Act, 2016, r/w 20(1), (c)(i)(ii)(iii)(iv)(ix) and (x) of A.P. Forest (Amendment) Act, 2016, Sec.36 of A.P. Forest (Amendment) act, 2016, Rule 3&4 of A.P. Sandal Wood & Red Sanders Transits Rules, 1969, sec. 3 of Prevention of damage to Public Property Act, 1985 and Sec.55(2) of Bio Diversity Act, 2002 r/w Sec.3,4, & 6 of Bio-Diversity Act, 2002. The details shows that he is a habitual offender. He is committed a series of forest offences by entering Government Reserve Forests without proper authorisation, serving standing red sanders trees from the earth, and trying to smuggle the highly valuable red sanders heart wood to secret destinations in Bangalore/ Chennai and other un-known places. He is repeatedly committing forest offences involving the smuggling of red sanders, he has not stopped the same type of offences, even after cases and charge sheets were filed against him. It is also evident from the case records that he is engaging huge number of persons in the clandestine business and they were arrested along with the red sander stock at the time of cutting of trees and during transportation. The said activities are dangerous to forest wealth and prejudicial to maintenance of public order apart from disturbing the peace, tranquillity, social harmony / order in the society and he became a source of potential danger to the public. The said offences are punishable under Forest Act, 1967 and the rules made there under, as well as Chapter XVI or XVII or XXII of IPC. As such the activities of the individual falls under and within the meaning of ‘Goonda’ as defined under section 2(g) of Act 1 of 1986. All the incidents mentioned in the grounds of detention clearly substantiate as to how the acts of the detainee are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. In catena of decisions, the Hon’ble Courts held that any acts of attempt or illegal cutting of the red sanders trees and smuggling the timber, would certainly have its impact on the public order. The detaining authority having taken into account and consideration of indulgence of the detainee in the above said activities repeatedly at regular intervals and having satisfied that the penal laws have failed to curb his illegal activities, has passed the detention order against the detainee by invoking the provisions under the Act 1of 1986, in order to prevent him from indulging further in such activities, which are prejudicial to maintenance of public order and dangerous to forest wealth. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu. As such, the detenu deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under Section 13 of the Act;

5. Now, therefore, after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, Government, in exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (1) of Section 12 read with Section 13 of the said Act, hereby confirm the Order of Detention made by the Collector and District Magistrate, Chittoor District, Chittoor in the reference 1st read above, as approved in the G.O. 2nd read above and direct that the detention of Sri Syed Nazeer @ Chemcha Nazeer @ Nazeer, Aged 46 years, S/o Syed Ismail, R/o Katiganahalli, Jadigeneapalli Post, Hoskote Taluk, Bangalore Rural District, Karnataka State, be continued for a period of 12 (Twelve) months from the date of his detention, i.e. 10.08.2018.
